

Privacy Policy

Thank you for visiting AIXtreme ("we" or "us" or "the Site"). In order to provide you with the service you need and to protect your privacy, we have set out in this Privacy Policy how and for what purposes we process personal information. Please read the following carefully.

Data Collection and Use

We may collect personal information that you provide to us, including, but not limited to, name, email address, contact details, company name, etc. We will use this information for the following purposes. We will use this information for the following purposes:

Providing the products or services you request, including FinTech Handicapping services;

Responding to your enquiries, requests or providing technical support;

To send you information about updates to our products, services or website;

Providing you with information about products or services that may be of interest to you, but before doing so, we will obtain your consent.

Data Security

We will take reasonable technical and organisational measures to protect your personal data from unauthorised access, use or disclosure. We strictly comply with applicable data protection laws and regulations to ensure the security of your personal information.

Links to third party websites

This website may contain links to third party websites, but we are not responsible for the privacy practices of these third party websites. Any problems arising from your access to these links will be at your own risk. We recommend that you read and understand the privacy policies of the websites you visit after you leave our site.

Cryptocurrency Industry Research

We specialise in grid trading and quantitative robotics research and contributions to the cryptocurrency industry. We use sampled data and anonymised statistics to improve our research and services. When using this data, we will take steps to protect the privacy and security of the data.

Changes to the Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to modify or update this Privacy Policy at any time. Any modifications or updates will be posted on this website and will be effective from the date of posting. We recommend that you periodically review this Privacy Policy for any changes.

Cookies and Similar Technologies

We may use cookies and similar technologies to collect certain information when you visit the Site. This information includes your browser type, operating system, access times, pages visited, and clickstream data. We use this information to improve the functionality of the Website, analyse user behaviour and optimise the user experience. You can manage or disable cookies if you choose, so please check your browser settings to do so.

Customer Support and Communication

If you communicate with our customer support team, you may provide us with your personal information. This information will be used to solve your problem, respond to your enquiry and improve our customer support services.

Data Storage and Retention

We will retain your personal information for no longer than necessary to fulfil legal requirements and business needs. Once we no longer need your personal information, we will take appropriate steps to destroy or anonymise it.

Data Transfers

As our business may involve cross-border operations, your personal information may be transferred, processed and stored on servers in different countries or regions. In such cases, we will take appropriate measures to ensure that your personal information is properly protected in accordance with applicable data protection laws and regulations.

Privacy of minors

The Site is not intended for minors under the age of 18. If you are a minor, please do not provide us with any personal information. If a parent or guardian discovers that a minor has provided us with personal information, please contact us and we will delete the information as soon as possible.

Other Rights and Choices

You have the right to access, correct, and delete your personal information and to opt out of receiving marketing communications from us. If you would like to exercise these rights or have any privacy-related questions, please contact our Data Protection Officer at the contact details below:
